

JLPT 日本語能力試験

Japanese-Language
Proficiency
Test

Workshop Session

Registration: <https://goo.gl/vxog7l>

What?

The Japanese-Language Proficiency Test is a standardized test to evaluate and certify Japanese language proficiency for non-native speakers. There are 5 levels of the JLPT in total, from N5 (lowest) to N1 (highest).

The workshop will focus on explaining JLPT levels N5 and N4, and will provide sample questions to help you understand the test.

Why?

When?

2:00 pm – 3:10 pm, Saturday, March 11

Instructor: Barbara Carter
Program Officer – Japanese Language Education
The Japan Foundation, Toronto

Who?

Where?

@Harry Ainlay High School, 4350 111St, Edmonton
Classroom 309

Everybody is welcome to attend!